APUBEF has been formed for the purpose of:

- (1) Fostering economic and business scholarship and fellowship among business and economic faculty throughout the region.
- (2) Fostering professional development of faculty, by encouraging them to engage in research and submitting papers for presentation to the annual meetings of the Association.
- (3) Publication of the Pennsylvania Journal of Business and Economics, a broad-based forum to which faculty may submit scholarly research. The Pennsylvania Journal of Business and Economics is a double-blind referred publication. It is listed in Cabell's Directories of Publishing Opportunities.
